Cash Prize given to the contestants that place. The number of contestants who place will be determined after all entries have been received.

Pageant Participants need to have a pair of jean shorts (be cautious of length please) to wear with the fair shirt that will be given to each child. This will be worn during the interviews with the judges and on stage to introduce themselves the evening of their pageant.

This year pageant attire will include the fair attire (shorts and t-shirt given to each participant), and a personality outfit you select, nice sundress (something you wear to church).
